Beloved St. John’s Community,

Did you know that in any community, the whole is greater than the sum of the parts? From my perspective, the St. John’s community isn’t only made up of individuals like you and me. I truly believe that we are a collection of people gathered by God’s Spirit at this point in history for a purpose. Instead of doing many things superficially, however well intentioned we are, we can choose to do a few things deeply and well, based on carefully discerning where God’s Spirit is leading us. One way to discern the Spirit’s leading is through the focus groups we conducted in September, which I and a team are hard at work to digest and interpret, and which we’ll be sharing with you over the coming months.

The theme of our annual stewardship campaign is Our Way Forward: Living into God’s Purpose for Ourselves and the World, and so we’ve been discerning exactly what “God’s purpose” means to us. On September 8, I asked you what “one word” summed up the Way of Jesus for you—and more than half of you responded by saying “love.” We know that we are called to love God, our neighbors and ourselves. But what does that look like in 2019 in Minnesota? Given our nation’s history of systemic racism, the fact of Minnesota’s significant achievement and opportunity gaps based on race, and the current political climate toward immigrants (particularly immigrants of color), how does God call us to “love”? And what will nourish us to do so sustainably, sacrificially, and with joy?

Each day in your own life, and each time you are present in this community, ask yourself this: where do you see evidence of God’s Spirit at work? What helps you pause to listen, pay attention, and notice signs of life and healing within and around you? How can you participate with God’s activity, and share your insights with others? In case you haven’t noticed, some St. John’s parishioners have been blogging about their engagement with God’s presence through the seven practices of the Way of Love—read and comment on their posts here.

Step by step, we can realize God’s purpose for us—to engage God’s mission of the Beloved Community. God’s Spirit is already hard at work ahead of us—blessing all that exists, reconciling all things, seeking to heal that which is broken, sick, and destructive. We don’t need to reinvent the wheel; we just need to discern and participate in what God is already doing.

May God bless you in your discernment and practice of the Way of Love. May God grant us awareness of what the Spirit is leading us to do as a community. May your lives overflow with abundance and blessing.

Faithfully,

Lisa
Our Way Forward:

Living into God’s Purpose for Ourselves and the World

Beloved St. John’s community,

Consecration Sunday culminates our annual month-long pledge drive to secure funding for next year’s operating budget. As your Rector, one of the high points of this first year has been the privilege of hearing the talks by parishioners, who share their deep feelings about St. John’s. This year’s talks were outstanding. If you missed any of the talks, please click on the links below to read them now.

Jane Gilgun
Steve Schewe
Mark Lindberg
Sue Everson-Rose
Shelly Gill-Murray
Ryan Curl & Kari Rusch-Curl

Thank you to everyone who has pledged so far. Of course, it’s not too late!

If you didn’t receive a pledge card and would like to have one, please contact Rachel in the office. You may pledge online, instead; just click here. There you will find a variety of options for payment methods and timing.

Please let us hear from you soon. St. John’s has a long history of balanced budgets. Since our budget is based on pledges, the Vestry members will be making follow up calls in the second half of November to those from whom we haven’t heard.

Gratefully,
Lisa
All Saints Sunday

New! Children’s Saints Procession
Sunday, November 3rd at 9:00 and 11:00am services
This year on the Feast of All Saints, St. John’s is having its first-ever Children’s Saints Procession. All children (and the young at heart of every age!) are invited to come to church dressed as their favorite saint and to process with the clergy and ministers in both the 9:00am and the 11:00am services. Children already dressed in saint costumes should meet at 8:45 in the parish hall for the 9am service, or at 10:45 in the parish hall for the 11:00am service. After their procession, children will either go to children’s chapel or rejoin their parents in the pews. Children will also be invited to stand at the altar during communion.

You are welcome to bring photographs of your saints and loved ones, to grace our altar on during the service, so that their presence may be with us as we pray. We will set up small tables in front of the altar for you to place your photo before worship.

Intergenerational Event
Sunday, November 3rd, 10:00am in the Parish Hall
Come to the parish hall between services for a variety of intergenerational activities designed to celebrate the Saints, including all of us!
Small Groups

Conversations from the Heart
Saturday, November 9th, 12:30pm in the Library
Join us for Conversations from the Heart. We will meet from 12:30-2:00pm to share insights, curiosities and experiences of the seen and unseen sacred in our lives. Please feel free to join us. If you have any questions, please contact Nancy Herbst.

Lunch Bunch
Monday, November 18th, 12:00pm in the Parish Hall
Lunch Bunch will gather for a pot luck lunch and a program to meet (or re-meet) our deacon, Rex McKee. Rex and his family share a history of times together at St. John’s, but we all look forward to learning more of his experiences as a deacon and what we can share as a parish with him. All are welcome to bring something to share for lunch and stay to hear Rex. Contact Barb Risken with questions.

Brown Bag Eucharist
Tuesdays, 12:15pm in the Chapel
We offer a weekly Eucharist in which you are invited to bring your lunch – at 12:15pm every Tuesday in the Chapel. During this service, during the liturgy of the Word, we eat our lunches, have a lively conversation about scripture, offer our prayers verbally to God, and then continue with the liturgy of the table. We conclude by 12:50 so people can get back to work.
Adult Forums

What helps us grow and be nourished spiritually? How do we connect the dots between Sunday morning and daily life? Come to the Adult Forum to discuss the Way of Love spiritual practices, and learn more about St. John’s and our neighbors.

Sunday, November 3rd  NO Adult Forum
Come to the parish hall between services for a variety of intergenerational activities designed to celebrate the Saints, including all of us!

Is it just me, or is starting the hardest part?
Sunday, November 10th  John Bellaimey
The Way of Love says that "Go" means "Cross boundaries, listen deeply and live like Jesus." But what does THAT mean? It's hard enough to listen to people who think a lot like we do. Where do we even start?

Receive the gift of God’s grace, peace, and restoration
Sunday, November 17th  Tabitha Kyambadde
Most of us don't get enough rest, however you define it. Our culture might think of rest as merely "down time," but when have you received God's grace, peace and restoration? How might a practice of this kind of rest change your life and the world around you?

Why do we call Christ a "King"?
Sunday, November 24th  Charles Taliaferro
The language of monarchy can conjure up for us images of patriarchy, empire, and top-down power. When we call Jesus of Nazareth King, do we perpetuate imperial monarchical power or does Jesus turn such power upside down? The King of Love Jesus calls us to enter a Kingdom of healing, reconciliation, and solidarity with each other and God, caring especially for the most vulnerable.

First Nations Kitchen

Sunday, November 10th
Thank you to the confirmation class for covering the serving and cleanup at First Nations this month. We still need volunteers to chop veggies, pick up bread, and set up the give-away and tables. See sign up in the Gathering Space.

For more information about this opportunity contact JoAnn Blatchley or 952-922-0308.

For more information about the ministry at All Saints’ Indian Mission, check out their website.
Featuring our own Aliese Hoesel, St. John’s presents a program of music by Pearson Thomas, Ravel, Ponce, and the Andrew Sisters. Admission is free (Free-Will Offering is appreciated). Aliese is joined by musicians Carissa Bussian, Deanna Davis, Hannah Green, Tara Priolo, Jared Miller, Ashley Sievers, Anne Todey, and Eryn Tvete.
Affordable Housing Thanksgiving Baskets and Workday

St. John’s and our affordable housing partner Urban Homeworks are teaming up for the sixth year on the Thanksgiving Basket Project. Thanksgiving Baskets are Thank You gifts for the residents of Urban Homeworks properties. We fill the baskets with household supplies - items like blankets, laundry detergent, and band aids – everyday items every household needs. UHW staff delivers a basket and the message of thanks to each of their residents the day before Thanksgiving. How many landlords do that?

Sign up for your basket on Sunday November 10th or November 17th in the gallery area. Here’s how it works –

- Select a family to shop for on the sign up days - pick up a laundry basket and a suggestion list.
- Carefully consider what a household with an annual income of $12,000 to $15,000 annually needs.
- Shop and fill your basket.
- Decorate your basket in a Thanksgiving theme.
- Deliver the filled basket on Sunday 11/24.

Questions? Contact John Corlett by email or 612-839-6566 (evenings).

Our work days are the second Saturday of every month, and you don’t have to be a skilled crane operator or carpenter to participate. Usually our job is to help ‘turn over’ apartments – interior painting and cleaning so a new family can move in. So if you can paint, clean or do light repairs, we have a job for you. Our work days are from 8:30am to 3pm - the day starts with coffee, juice, and treats. We are treated to a terrific lunch and each other’s company for the day.

If you can come one Saturday a year or every month, we will put you to work. Please contact John Corlett to sign up.

- Wendy Smith, Jodi and Allie Bosacker for their fine teaching & care-filled leadership of Wednesday evening Children’s, Chime choir, and Children’s Activities.
- Nancy Herbst, Ginny Jacobson, Jane Gilgun, Joan and Don Hawkinsion, Mary Beth Crandall, Mary Miller, Lynnell Mickelson, John Belaimey, Jenny Lindberg, Vickie Madsen, Jeanne Olsen, and Gerry Lukaska for their good work preparing Wednesday Choir dinners in September & October this fall!
- St. John’s 9am, 10am, and 11am Service Musicians for their faithful service and participation - leading The People’s Song Sunday mornings through October!
Music Highlight: Theo Mendez

Q: In what ways do you share your musical gifts at St. John’s?
A: I am in my second year of playing in the Chime Choir. I used to sing in the Children’s Choir.

Q: What music do you listen to?
A: I listen to the radio. Mostly Cities 97.

Q: Do you have a favorite musical artist, song or composition?
A: My favorite group is Imagine Dragons.

Q: Is there any particular music or musician that has influenced you?
A: My band teacher Mr. Robinson. I like how he teaches me to play music.

Q: What musical endeavors do you pursue outside of St. John’s?
A: I play trombone in the band at my school (Windom Dual Immersion)

Q: If you could meet any musical person, past or present, who would it be?
A: I would like to meet Josh Ritter

Q: What is something people might be surprised to know about you?
A: Starting in daycare, I’ve only attended Spanish speaking schools.
Children, Youth & Family News

Sunday School
St. John’s Sunday School meets every week in November EXCEPT All Saints Sunday (November 3) for the Intergenerational Event! Sunday School will happen on November 10, 17, and 24.

Youth Group (6th-7th Grade)
The St. John’s Youth Group has two chances to get together during November! First, we’re going bowling at Park Tavern in St. Louis Park on November 9th! We’ll meet at the church at 3:30pm or at Park Tavern by 4:00pm. We’ll plan to bowl until 5:30 and return to St. John’s by 6pm!

The other opportunity is for the Pre-TEC retreat! Pre-TEC is a 24-hour retreat for middle school students to gather from Episcopal Churches from all over the state. Pre-TEC will be hosted at St. John’s from 7pm on November 22nd to 7pm on November 23rd. It’s a fabulous way to try a church retreat in a familiar space! You can get more info and register for it here.

Pilgrimage (8th-9th Grade)
Having spent time discerning our values in October and then coming up with a list of trips that match those values, the St. John’s Pilgrims will meet twice in November to start to narrow down their list of trips toward a final destination. Potlucks are scheduled for November 3rd AND November 17th from 6-8pm. They’ll also spend some time talking about how to make a decision together as a group and how every voice is important and vital for the good of the group.

They’ll also be selling Advent Wreaths from 8:30-12:30 on November 24th!

Confirmation (10th-11th Grade)
Confirmation will be doing one of their acts of service and outreach on November 10th, overseeing the whole process of St. John’s bi-monthly responsibilities at First Nation’s Kitchen. All Confirmands are invited to be present for the meal (starting at 5:30pm) through the end of clean-up and a closing conversation about crossing lines of difference at All Saints from 7:30-8:15pm.

Confirmation Class will also meet on Sunday, November 24th in the Confirmation room (under the Library) from 10-11:30 to talk about the rhythms of prayer in the Daily Office and be challenged to pray together twice a day during Advent!
The Way of Love at Home: Worship

The thing about being Episcopalian is, most of our Worship is done corporately. It was one of Craig Lemming’s favorite points to make: We are bound together not by belief or by action, but by a Book of Common Prayer. We all have different ideas about God and different callings in the world. But we come together to worship God as a single community, united in prayer and in worship.

Worship is the place where we praise God for God’s action and presence in our lives. And doing that in Baptism, the Eucharist, and even at Funerals when we gather at church is important. But we can also worship any time, and anywhere! Even “eucharist” itself means “thanksgiving.”

How can you make thankfulness to God a regular practice at home? Sometimes it’s just a perspective shift. “What was your favorite part of school / work today?” When you hear your answer, thank God for that! Maybe make or keep a list on your meal table, where you thank God for things each day for a month. Maybe pause together before work or school and thank God for the chance to start a new day.

These tiny moments of worship each day can re-orient our focus, and when we start to see God in the little things, we just might start to hear God in the biggest places of our lives as well.

Shane Sanders Marcus
Minister for Children, Youth, & Families

Support our beloved bi-annual Pilgrimage program AND start decorating for the season!

Our new Pilgrims, preparing for June of 2021, will be selling wreaths before and after the services in the Gathering Space starting on November 24th
This year marked our tenth year that St. John’s has traveled to Guatemala. Travelers from St. John’s this year were John and Mary Corlett, Diane and John Erdmann, Heidi Joos, Jenny Lindberg, Lindsey Mussell, Sarah Parker, Emily Peterson, Erica Seavey, Heidi Sundet, and Susan Tapp. Also with us were James Meyerson (son of Yvonne and Tim Meyerson, previous St. John’s parishioners), Robyn Cass (Emily Peterson’s cousin), and Yvonne Banks and Joseph Meyer (Yvonne came with us in 2016). Bill Peterson was also helping when he wasn’t working.

Since 2011 we have been helping a small village called Nueve Providencia. This village was created after a mudslide took out three villages. The San Lucas Foundation bought the land and resettled the people there. This year we continued to create a concrete road and we also painted the school. We work with the villagers allowing them to decide what work is important to them and have made friends and watched the children grow and learn in the school that we helped build. It can be hard work but very rewarding. Take a look at a few pictures of our work this year at Nueve Providencia and other things we did. We don’t just work, we also play as well, drinking in the beautiful area of Lake Atitlan. We take breaks and learn about the people there and then, after a week of work, we go to Antigua, a 16th century town of churches, ruins and shopping. We also climbed an active volcano!
SAN LUCAS COFFEE FOR SALE!
JUAN ANA COFFEE CAN BE BOUGHT THROUGH THE
SAN LUCAS FOUNDATION WEBSITE: sanlucasmision.org
They have regular coffee – ground, whole bean and dark
(French) roast bean at just $10.00 per 16 oz bag.

Thank You!

Dear People of St John’s,

Thank you so much for your outpouring of generosity towards our partner parish in Haiti. We have raised over $15,000 towards our goal of $22,000. Teachers are receiving their pay on time, and students are attending school without paying tuition. Together we are making a difference in the lives of these young people.

Many Blessings,
Dianne Pizey and the Haiti Committee
Deacon's Reflections

There are many times in the Gospel when Jesus sounds very much like a Zen master teaching his disciples to pay attention and to practice what he is teaching them. He praised them when they practiced the way of love and enabled enacted the reign of heaven in their lives.

Jesus did not simply want his disciples and followers to travel with him and listen to what he said. More importantly he wanted them to put it into practice in their daily lives. Repeatedly he asked them, and in turn each of us, to leave behind old behaviors and to follow him.

Meister Eckhart writes that God is at once both a Mary and a Martha; Mary the immature virgin giving birth to God’s own self, and Martha the midwife, bringing all beings back into union with God. We are all meant to be both Mary’s and Martha’s mothers of God... for God is always needing to be born.

God is always ready, but we are very unready; God is near to us, but we are far from Him; God is within, but we are without; God is at home, but we are strangers...

There is a saying from the Hasidic tradition by Mordecai ‘you are not worthy to be a righteous person until you can feel the pain of a women in labor fifty miles away’. This is what it means I believe to be fully alive, to be so aware of someone different from yourself that you can feel a pain that you cannot experience physically. Such is being awakened into the way of love, it is at the core a practice of compassion. Our openness to diversity, not simply a cliché, but a step into and beyond compassion.

We are encouraged to turn, to let go of some of the things that we didn’t think we could live without in order to discover that we can still be ourselves, in a new way in a new place. As Jesus said, those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for the sake of the gospel will save it.

Jesus calls us to be transformed into both a broader and deeper perception of our true self, as mothers and midwives to the seed of God that dwells within each of us.

Rex McKee

Are you interested in being part of St. John's Vestry?

The Vestry is the governing board of St. John’s. The Vestry oversees the “business” side of church life, but it is also a spiritual body that, together with the Rector, supports the congregation to discern where God’s Spirit is leading us and how we can follow and support that leading. The Vestry consists of two Wardens along with nine other lay members, and is presided over by the Rector. Three new Vestry members will be elected for three-year terms at the annual meeting to be held in January of 2020.

If you have interest in being considered for Vestry nomination and are a pledging member, if you want to recommend someone for consideration, or if you would just like to learn more, please contact Lisa Wiens Heinsohn, Rector, or Allen Gooch, Junior Warden.
Mark Your Calendars: Advent

Advent Intergenerational Event  Sunday, December 1, 10:00am
Advent is a time of waiting and preparing as we make our homes and hearts ready to celebrate Jesus’ birth. One of the most visible ways that we do this is through the use of an Advent wreath. We’ll also have opportunities to think and explore the four themes of Advent: Hope, Joy, Peace, and Love.

Loss & Remembrance Service  Sunday, December 8, 4:00pm
The gatherings and festivities of the holiday season are a poignant reminder of losses of all kinds. St. John’s invites you, your friends, your neighbors--any who seek companionship and consolation in this season. Cellist Greg Nelson and pianist Chad Smith will provide a beautiful music backdrop for this special annual service.

Advent Lesson & Carols  Sunday, December 15th, 4:00pm
St. John’s will celebrate its first-in-a-long-time traditional service of Advent Lessons & Carols. Join us to hear the stories of God’s healing work in the world from creation through the birth of Jesus, to sing beloved Advent carols, and sink more deeply into the spirit of longing and hope at the heart of Advent.

Christmas Cookie Coffee Hour  Sunday, December 22nd, 10:00am
Do you have a favorite holiday cookie or treat? Bring a plate to share for this fun coffee hour the Sunday before Christmas! St. John’s will provide the coffee and juice.
