Turning From, Turning Toward

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. Romans 12:1-2

Beloved St. John’s community,

March 1 is the first Sunday in Lent—traditionally in the church, it is the forty days preceding Easter Sunday (not including Sundays). If you haven’t noticed, the number “forty” in scripture is significant—the rain fell for 40 days and 40 nights in the flood; the Israelites wandered in the desert 40 years; Jesus was tempted 40 days and 40 nights. Forty weeks just so happens also to be the number of weeks it takes for a woman to gestate a baby. In each of these significant events in our foundational stories, something ended and something else began. The world’s violence drowned, and a new beginning came through Noah and the animals; the Israelites left behind their slavery and learned how to rely upon God before settling into a new normal; Jesus learned what was important and what his priorities were before starting his public ministry. The number 40, and the season of Lent, is about this kind of deep transformation. As Paul expresses in his letter to the church in Rome, “do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds.” This is the heart of what Lent is all about.

This Lent, we as a community are focusing on the spiritual practice “Turn” through small groups committed to this theme. When we turn, it’s always turning away from something and toward something else. From a big picture perspective, it’s about choosing to follow Jesus’ Way of Love. But in each individual circumstance, that involves a specific letting go of something in order to embrace something else.

This Lent, instead of giving up chocolate, beer or Facebook, why not consider two areas—one in your personal life, and one in the life of the world God so loves—and deeply contemplate what God is inviting you to turn away from and toward? What small actions can you take to participate in the transformation that God seeks to bring about in your life and in the world?

For myself, in my personal life, I have struggled with resentment in a particular area. I sense God inviting me to become clear what I can say “yes” to and what I need to say “no” to. My personal invitation from God is to turn from resentment and toward gratitude, by having clear “yes” and “no’s” in my life. In the life of the world, for a long time I have been very concerned about the immigrants in detention. Each week during Lent, I will seek to do one small but significant thing—learn more about what is happening, call my congresspersons, get to know an immigrant, etc.—so that I can discover more clearly how God is inviting us to create Beloved Community with the strangers in our midst.

What is God inviting you to do in your personal life and in the life of the world? I’d love for you to share these things with me and with each other.

With blessings for a holy Lent, faithfully,

Lisa
Lenten Events at St. John’s

Lenten Small Groups  Meet for 5 weeks (various times available), February 29 - April 5th
This Lent, we have formed several small groups who will be exploring the spiritual practice “Turn”—which means to pause, listen, and choose to follow Jesus’ Way of Love. We will choose a story from scripture to explore, mine our own lives for stories of turning, listen to each other’s stories, discern what God is currently inviting us to turn away from and toward, and seek out stories of transformation in the world around us—especially in the voices of people whose stories are not often heard at St. John’s. Through all this, we’ll be seeking to go deeper into our faith, opening ourselves to the power and presence of God, and strengthening our experience of God’s Beloved Community.  If you would like to sign up, click here.

Brown Bag Eucharist  Tuesdays throughout Lent at 12:15pm
We offer a weekly Eucharist in which you are invited to bring your lunch, every Tuesday in the Chapel. During this service, during the liturgy of the Word, we eat our lunches, have a lively conversation about scripture, offer our prayers verbally to God, and then continue with the liturgy of the table. We conclude by 12:50 so people can get back to work.

Morning Prayer  Wednesdays, March 4th - April 8th at 8am (New time!)
Morning prayer will be held in the chapel each Wednesday during Lent, with a light breakfast after the service. All are welcome to attend during this season of reflection and renewal. We read Scripture and prayers, sing a canticle, and share reflections on the readings. Contact Jane Gilgun for more information.

Lenten Evensong  Sundays, March 22nd and 29th at 4pm
Join us once again in welcoming our special guest music ensemble, Lumina, in a short evening sung service featuring original choral music by composer and Lumina artistic director Linda Kachelmeier, along with hymns and prayers, in the Chancel with candles and incense.

Silent Prayer Vigil on Election Day

Tuesday, March 3rd, 7:00am until 7:00pm in the Chapel
Our church will be open to the public on Tuesday, for the presidential primary elections. That same day, we are opening the chapel for prayers for our nation. Please feel free to drop in and offer your silent prayers for our political process, for the outcome of our elections, and for the healing of all that needs healing in our country and our earth. We will also have Brownbag Eucharist that day at 12:15 as usual.
Interim Process Update

The Transition Task Force (TTF) started in February with Amy McGrew, of InterServe Ministries, facilitating the process with Heidi Weaver as co-chair. Members include Diane Erdmann, Leah Guy, Kathryn Olson, Kari Rusch-Curl, and Mark Slade. This team is in the midst of doing a lot of assessment work and need your involvement and participation this month.

Your voice is needed! Ages 14-114 are invited to an event to imagine and express your hopes on the culture of children’s and youth ministry, the future of children, youth and family ministry programming, and ideas about staffing that serves our goals for children, youth and family ministry. Please join us at the Congregational Listening & Learning Event in the Parish Hall at 10:10 a.m. on Sunday, March 1.

The TTF is launching a Congregational Survey and Youth Survey March 1 as well. We invite all members to participate in the adult survey about youth and family ministry. YOUR feedback is essential whether you have children or any involvement in the program right now or not. We need to hear from the WHOLE congregation. The focus of this survey is your perceptions of Youth and Family Ministry at St. John’s to help the Transition Task Force in the interim process.

- Your involvement helps us assess current Children, Youth and Family Ministry’s success in aligning with our mission and values.
- Your feedback assists us in dreaming and strategizing for the future.
- Your responses shape and determine staffing and job description decisions being made in April.

Survey runs until Monday, March 16. Access both surveys from the church website beginning Tuesday, March 3rd.

Children, Youth & Families News

Nursery
We are grateful to have a fully staffed nursery this Spring. Shaun, one of the teachers in the daycare downstairs, is our lead adult being supported by high school and college students—Fin, Kamryn and Rachel each week.

Children’s Chapel
Children’s Chapel requires a rotation of volunteers to serve as a second adult in order to fulfill Safe Church practices during each service. As a non-parent, please consider signing up to join the children once a month or once this semester to support the parents in our congregation. Sign up as either:
- Helpers (“2nd adult”) sit in with children, model participation for them, and help redirect their attention as needed.
- Teachers are needed when Amy, Interim Minister of Children, Youth, and Families, attends her home church once a month. Amy emails the teacher an agenda and location of all supplies needed.

Most Sundays in March NEED volunteers. For more information or to sign-up, click here.

*Previously we had a Lenten Intergenerational Event scheduled for March 1. Because of the needs of the Transition Task Force to host a Congregational Listening & Learning Event, this date worked best for them to have both the Parish Hall and availability of Sunday School teachers to participate. Please come by the Parish Hall to not only participate in this event but pick up a Lenten Family Activity Handout to use as family in honoring this season together.

Youth Group (6th-7th Grade)
Sunday, March 1st, is our Potluck from 6:00 to 8:00pm in the Parish Hall, so bring food to share. During our Potluck, we will play games and explore how our faith can impact life all week long.

Sunday, March 22nd, we are meeting at Vertical Endeavors from 3:00 – 6:00pm to go rock climbing. Watch email for waiver and pricing.

Pilgrimage (8th-9th Grade)
Pilgrims made a decision about what pilgrimage location best fits who they are and what fits their goals and values. Watch the bulletin board in the Gathering Space for their reveal.

Events this month are:

| March 8th       | 5:00-7:30pm | Meet at All Nations Kitchen to serve, eat and clean up dinner |
| March 22nd      | 3:00-6:00pm | Meet at Vertical Endeavors for rock climbing (Watch email for waiver and pricing.) |
Confirmation (10th-11th Grade)

Saturday, March 7th: Arabic Lunch and Trip to NWICC Mosque in Plymouth
Middle Eastern Lunch and cooking class at John Bellaimey's house 12:00pm, drive to Plymouth 2:30pm. Tour of mosque, then Q & A with IRG youth from 3:00-4:30pm. Return to St. John's about 5:00pm. Come help John with the cooking (tabbouleh, stuffed grape leaves, homemade hummus, pita bread, grilled chicken kebab, feta cheese, olives, and green salad) and learn five or six Arabic expressions. Drivers needed.

Sunday, March 8th, 10:00 - 11:30am Confirmation Class
Islam, Qur’an, Arabic, Islamophobia and more. Also, Lisa and Amy will speak about the transition / search for a new Children and Youth Minister.

Sunday, March 22nd, 10:00 - 11:30am Confirmation Class
Details to be announced.

Summer Camp Registration
The Episcopal Church in Minnesota has well run, age-appropriate and engaging camps that connect children and youth with peers in the region and state. For a full list of camps and the link to register, click here.

In February, we stated “for years, Pilgrims have been grateful for the community’s support and involvement in the Spring Rummage Sale. After thoughtful discussion, and for a variety of reasons, we decided NOT to host a rummage sale this Spring. Thank you for your understanding, continued encouragement, and support of students going on Pilgrimage.”

A few people raised some good questions regarding this decision, so we are inviting feedback from the congregation. While the Pilgrims are planning a fundraiser for this Spring, currently, we are not able to put this amount work alone into such a large endeavor. Is the rummage sale something that you highly value as a connection point for the community? Would you be willing to volunteer your time, skills and energy to co-lead, sort and price items, and transport remaining items to thrift stores and dump?

Please send feedback by March 15 to Amy McGrew at 708-307-1344 or via email. We will reassess and make a final decision regarding the rummage sale for this year.

Guatemala Presentation
Sunday, March 8th
John Corlett and others
St. John’s members who participated on last year’s Guatemala mission trip will share experiences about their work with the residents of Nueva Providencia, Guatemala. See and hear about their very hard work and what they took away beyond calluses and sore backs.

Focus on Prayer
Sunday, March 15th
Jay Hornbacher
What inspires you (or drives you!) to prayer? Habit? Need? Impulse? There are many prayer forms; which is easiest for you to employ? Which is most foreign or difficult? Do you pray for outcomes?

Gathering as a Community
Sunday, March 22nd
Tabitha Kyambadde
How does today's scripture speak to the role of community in worship? Does community always help, or does it sometimes hinder? What makes the whole community at worship greater than the sum of its parts?

The Power to Bless
Sunday, March 29th
Heidi Joos
Does blessing impact the events in today's scripture? In the adult forum, we'll explore what it means to bless, the impact of blessing (is there any?), and who has the power to bless.
Sunday Evening Contemplative Prayer

Sundays, 7:00pm in the Chapel
Do you ever wonder what takes place in the chapel on Sunday evenings? Come check it out – you are most welcome!

Around fifteen years ago, a small group of St. John’s parishioners began studying and practicing Centering Prayer at the Episcopal House of Prayer with Cynthia Bourgeault, Ward Bauman and other teachers. Centering Prayer is a simple form of Christian meditation, developed by Father Thomas Keating, a modern Cistercian monk who based his form of meditation on the 14th century text The Cloud of Unknowing. The purpose of the prayer is to sit in God’s presence and let God do the work of transforming you.

As a way of continuing our practice of Centering Prayer, we started to meet every Sunday evening, and the Contemplative Prayer service has continued to this day. Some in the group practice Centering Prayer, others practice other forms of meditation. One of the group opens the service with a reading, poem and/or chant, then we sit together in silence for twenty minutes. After the twenty minutes, we offer prayers for others in the community and for the world. Then we visit for a while, and are out the door by 7:45pm.

Whether you are a seasoned Centering Prayer practitioner or meditator, or have never sat in silence before, everyone is welcome. For those of us who meet regularly, being together in silence is healing and transforming, and a lovely way to prepare for the week ahead. Please join us! You are very welcome!

Donate Children’s Books for Reading Partners

St. John’s is again hosting a book drive for Reading Partners, from now through mid-April. We hope you will give gently-used books (or new books), grade levels kindergarten through 4, to contribute to Reading Partners. There is a collection box under the coat racks in the gathering area.

Several people from St. John’s are volunteer tutors for Reading Partners (a NAZ anchor partner), at various elementary schools throughout Minneapolis—many on the Northside. Volunteer tutors spend one or more hours each week working with students to help them gain reading skills. Take Reading Home is a cornerstone of the Reading Partners program. Students are encouraged to build their home libraries by taking gently used, donated books from the Take Reading Home selection, which is made available through book drives and donations.

So please donate books if you can, and you may want to consider being a Reading Partners volunteer. To find out more, visit their volunteer web page here.

Tickets available at the door or at trailertrashmusic.com or stjohns-mpls.org

All proceeds from this concert will be used to develop self-sufficiency in a small Guatemalan village that St. John’s has partnered with since 2009. St. John’s is a vibrant and progressive church committed to social justice and inclusion.
Guatemala Trip 2020

Planning has begun for the St. John’s Mission trip to Guatemala. We will again assist on projects in the village of Nueva Providencia. We are working with village council to identify the 2020 project.

We will leave Minneapolis on Saturday, August 1st, and return on Tuesday, August 11th. Our itinerary includes work days Monday through Friday in Nueva Providencia, with opportunities to learn about the mission’s other services, tour San Lucas, maybe go to a Mayan ruin, and learn about the history of the area. On Saturday, we cross beautiful Lake Atitlan by boat to visit another village, returning to San Lucas in time to say goodbye to the mission and travel to Antigua. Out last few days in Antigua are full of history, charm, shopping and an opportunity to climb an active volcano. There will be an informational meeting scheduled in the coming months for any and all to learn more about this trip and the experiences from prior trips from St. John’s members.

The cost of the trip is still being calculated but currently estimated to be about $1800 per person. This includes airfare, travel insurance, all lodging, all meals in San Lucas and Nueva Providencia, and some meals in Antigua. We can provide scholarships. One other important save-the-date is Saturday, March 14th, 2020, for the St. John’s Guatemala Fundraiser. This year it will be at the Uptown VFW, 2915 Lyndale Ave So, Mpls, from 4:00 – 6:00pm. It will feature five women singer/songwriters, a silent auction, and, of course, Guatemalan coffee for sale.

If you are interested in the fundraiser or to join the trip, please contact John or Mary Corlett.

Affordable Housing Workday

Saturday, March 14th, 8:30am
St. John’s work crews work the second Saturday every month. Usually our job is to help ‘turn over’ apartments – interior painting and cleaning so a new family can move in. So, if you can paint, clean or do light repairs, we have a job for you. Our work days are from 8:30am to 3pm - the day starts with coffee, juice, and treats.
The work starts at 8:30am, ends around
3pm, with a break around noon for lunch.
Lunch is made and delivered by the St. John’s affordable housing lunch crew.
New volunteers are always welcome.
Please contact John Corlett for site work.

NEW DAY, NEW BOOK!
Thursdays, March 5, 12, 19, and 26 at 7:00pm in the Library
The Cross and the Lynching Tree by James Cone
Please read the introduction and Chapter 1. You might also read Exodus, as Gary Selby wrote in his book MLK and the Rhetoric of Freedom, “King’s use of the Exodus narrative helped constitute the civil rights movement as a movement. Exodus encompassed the protesters’ circumstances, gave them a shared identity, and brought to their efforts a sense of direction and progress... Within that symbolic world, African Americans who joined the movement and who persevered in the struggle for justice were living out the implications of their most cherished story.”

Blessings,
Rex

Lunch Bunch

Monday, March 16th, 12:00pm in the Parish Hall
Carol Arney, a retired Episcopal priest who attends St. Mary’s in St. Paul, is again available to join us for her presentation on climate change, which she learned from a class given by Al Gore. We’ll begin with a potluck lunch at noon, followed by Carol’s talk on this timely topic. Please bring a dish to share and learn ways to be involved with this issue.

Conversations from the Heart

Saturday, March 21st, 12:30pm in the Library
NOW ON THE 3RD SATURDAY!
"You can have the other words- chance, luck coincidence, serendipity. I'll take grace. I don't know what it is exactly, but I'll take it." - Mary Oliver.
Please join us from 12:30-2:00pm as we gather to explore and share stories and experiences of grace. All are welcome to attend; for more information contact Nancy Herbst.
Andrew Towne speaks about “The Impossible Row”

Andrew Towne, an Episcopalian who lives near Loring Park, was one of a six-man crew who did “The Impossible Row” – a crew of six men from four nations and three continents who rowed continuously, 24 hours a day in a perpetual 90-minute rotation for 12 days straight – to get from the southern tip of South America to Antarctica. You may recall Lisa talking about it in one of her sermon’s back in December (click here to read the sermon).

We have the pleasure of welcoming Andrew to St. John’s to speak about this amazing experience on Sunday, March 22nd at 5:30pm in the Sanctuary. The talk is free and open to the public, so invite your friends and neighbors!

Andrew Towne: “The Impossible Row”
Sunday, March 22nd, 5:30pm at St. John’s

A little more about Andrew:

Andrew Towne is an endurance athlete and businessman, with a black belt in Tae Kwon Do. Andrew has summited the highest peak on each of the seven continents, including Mt Everest. A US national champion rower and runner, Andrew has rowed in international competitions on three continents. Passionate about international relations, Andrew speaks 5 languages and is licensed as a lawyer in Minnesota.

2020 Day on the Hill - April 1, 2020

You can find details about Day on the Hill 2020 below.
2020: Serving the Common Good
InterContinental Saint Paul Riverfront
11 E Kellogg Blvd, St Paul, MN 55101

Theme: Serving the Common Good

Our 2020 Day on the Hill theme comes from a quotation from Pope Francis:
“Politics […] is one of the highest forms of charity, because it serves the common good.”
In 2020, hundreds of people of faith will come together to serve the common good!

Join faithful advocates from across the state on April 1, 2020, to reflect on why we make our voices heard, to plan for continued actions in our home communities, and to advocate for meaningful change in the state of Minnesota.

I have been attending JRLC for over 20 years and have never been disappointed. It is an excellent opportunity to meet with other leaders from faith communities, engage local representatives, and discern the common voice. The Episcopal Church in Minnesota is always well represented and is a Lead Sponsor. Finally, I have found this to be an excellent learning experience for youth, and there is always an amazing turnout of youth from all faith traditions. Watching youth in discussion with local representatives on faith issues is a powerful experience.

If you are interested in participating please let Rex or Lisa know as soon as possible. For more information; www.jrlc.org
